In class speech 1: Self Introduction 50 pts

In the reader Chapter 3 fill out the Learning Styles pages 47-63.

During your activity section you will be given 3 minutes to introduce yourself to the class.

During those 3 minutes you must cover the basics: Name, major and favorite food and/or music. Where were you born? What was the name of the last institution you attended (High school, Community college, or SJSU)? How big is your family? etc...

But as you introduce yourself to your peers you must also include information about your various learning preferences as discovered through the use of your learning style inventory. Use examples to illustrate that you understand the impact of your learning preferences on your behavior then you must fill in the rest of the time with your reaction and opinion to the 1st 2 chapters of A Primate’s Memoir.

What stood out for you in Chapter 1 and chapter 2? Do you feel that you can relate to any of it? Why or why not?

Be specific and you must use at least 2 examples from each chapter to demonstrate that you are up on the reading. If you have time left you may include any other pertinent information you want your audience to know about you. To pass this assignment you MUST hit the 3 minute mark (+/- 10 seconds) but CAN NOT go over 3 minutes.

You will be graded pass or fail on this assignment. Practice before you get up in front of the class with a friend or family member. Remember you must hit your time in order to pass. You must be clear, speak loudly enough to be heard by the class, and maintain eye contact with your audience. You may use flash cards to assist you but you MAY NOT read directly from them.
